

A VITAL COMMUNITY RESOURCE

Recent Highlights

Community Partnerships included:

- Creekside Artists Guild members did a series of 3 “Winter Watercolor” workshops.
- Clayton Valley Garden Club volunteers replaced mulch and plants in library garden beds.
- Clayton Concord Sunrise Rotary donated $900 from their Speakers’ Book Program.
- Clayton Valley Woman’s Club donated $300.

3 Library Volunteers of the Year with 2,309 donated hours were acknowledged by the Clayton City Council.

“One World Many Stories” Summer Reading theme was featured in the Clayton July 4th parade. 38 volunteers participated in the library float along with staff.

“Baking Cakes in Kigali” was featured in the annual Clayton Reads program. 205 people participated.

The annual Creekside Arts Festival raised $1,600 for library support.

Artists honored at Creekside Festival opening reception

“So You Want to Write a Book” author panel

Volunteers working on July 4th parade float

Book Buddy volunteer

2011 Quick Facts

133,257 people visited the library

207,298 items were borrowed

3,709 people attended 195 free programs

89 adults and 43 students donated 7,013 hours for an estimated value of $164,244

7,601 library card holders (2010/11) in Clayton (pop. 10,897)

75,161 total items in the collection